Open Source Governance

- Do not add reciprocally-licensed libraries to your project
  - May make later desired license change difficult, including proprietary use
  - Check with teaching team whether library is OK
- Rules of thumb on license choice
  - OK: Permissive licenses (BSD, Apache)
  - May be OK: Weakly protective (a.k.a. “weak copyleft”)
  - Usually not OK: Strongly protective (a.k.a. “reciprocal” or “copyleft”)
  - Never OK: Public domain or no license
- Professionals (i.e. companies) use code scanners to check
